

Spanish Major
Department of Modern Languages, Literatures, and Cultures

MAJOR REQUIREMENTS AND OTHER CONSIDERATIONS:

1. The Spanish major consists of at least nine credits beyond the 102 level.
2. At least four of the nine credits for the major must be at the 300 level or higher.
3. Topics courses may be repeated if the topic is different from the previous course taken.

COURSE SEQUENCE:

1. 201 and 202 must be taken in sequence, but students need not take these courses if they place at a higher level.
2. 202 is a prerequisite for all other 200-level courses unless the student places at a higher level.
3. All majors must take either Spanish 245 or 246 as a prerequisite for all 300- and 400-level courses.
4. All literature courses beyond the 310 level require the completion of Spanish 310 or a score of 4 or 5 on the AP Spanish Literature and Culture exam or the permission of the instructor. Spanish 310 is generally offered in the spring semester only, so students should plan accordingly. First-year students should consult with an MLLC professor before enrolling in Spanish 310.
5. Students may take 300- or 400-level history and culture courses before they have completed Spanish 310 or its equivalent.
