WHY WE CHOSE THIS TOPIC AND TARGET AUDIENCE

2007

2008

INTRODUCTION TO PROBLEM

- Target Audience:
  - Low income, Spanish-speaking students that attend Lincoln Intermediate School and their parents.
- Specific Problems to be solved:
  - An aide to all the language barriers in the Lincoln Intermediate.
  - An aide to all the language barriers seen between the Spanish student's parents and teachers in the school.
  - Help these students cognitive development and Comprehension in schools.

INTRODUCTION TO PROBLEM CONTINUED

- Characteristics of the specific audiences
  - Low level of English fluency
  - Lower education status
  - Lower incomes
  - Female/male students grades 4-8
  - Female/male parents
  - Access to some types of media
  - Some would see it as a great opportunity however, others might see it as disrespectful to their culture.
  - Excited about the opportunity to use and learn about new media.

PLAN GOALS

- Over all Goal:

- To expand the English vocabulary of students and their parents so that teachers can identify a difference over 1 school year.

- Smaller Goals:

- To increase the test scores of Hispanic students at Lincoln Intermediate school.
- To improve the communication between parents and teachers/administration.
- To improve student interaction between Hispanics and non-Hispanics.
- To stress the importance of parent involvement in and outside of school.
- To educate Hispanics on new type of media and their uses.

ESSENTIAL “MESSAGES”, INFORMATION, ACTIONS

1. Take a survey written in Spanish/English (depending on the preference of the participant)
  - Help to figure out what their level of experience is with the English language.
  - Get opinions on the percentage who are willing to learn
2. Put up postings at Lincoln Intermediate for an informational meeting

This informational meeting will include:

  - Give out statistical information on the number of Hispanics in the Monmouth Community
  - Inform them about our plan
  - Talk about test scores and how we want them to improve

INFORMATION AND RESOURCES AVAILABLE

- Text messaging to remind parents about tutor sessions
- Question forum for parents that Spanish education majors could answer.
- Skype as an option for tutoring purposes.
- Monthly community social events

ACTIONS WE WANT OUR AUDIENCE TO TAKE

- To motivate and encourage the Hispanic families and their
- willingness to learn the English language.
- Parents wanting to be a part of their child's learning experience
- To see the benefits that they would get out of this program so that they will want to spread the word!

TRADITIONAL MEDIA:

- Brochures on our program and plan
- Fliers on campus about students who want to volunteer
- Fliers at Lincoln Intermediate to encourage the cultural nights and tutoring services
- Monmouth College Radio to promote this plan and get volunteers.
- Local Monmouth radio to spread the word about our program and how beneficial it can be for them to be a part of.
- Fundraisers to raise money for materials that will help support our plan.
  - For example, English-Spanish Dictionaries

NEW/INTERACTIVE MEDIA

- Text Messaging
- Website that would include photos, videos, calendar of events, how to download Skype, links to language resources, how to set up text messaging service, and a question forum.
- Skype
- Face book group for the Monmouth College volunteers.
- Podcast on the website that reads off the calendar events and new information.

PROBLEMS AND LIMITS

1. We might not get enough Monmouth College Volunteers
2. The course might not get passed
3. Not enough money
4. Maintenance of website
5. Participation of the Hispanics
6. Transportation issues and time management
7. Hispanics access to media
8. Not everyone has a cell phone
