

MARY DAVIS MCKNIGHT SCHOLARSHIP FUND APPLICATION

Wells Fargo Bank, as one of the Trustees for the Mary Davis McKnight Trust, oversees the Mary Davis McKnight Scholarship Fund. Recipients of a scholarship from the Fund must meet certain criteria under the terms of the McKnight Trust. Under the terms of the Trust, a student can qualify if one or both parents are deceased. The McKnight Trust was established under the Will of Mary Davis McKnight in September 1913, to create and maintain the McKnight Industrial Home for orphaned children. Over the years, the need for the home declined due to the creation of agencies performing the same functions. In 1959, the Knox County Circuit court authorized the sale of the home. Since then, the Trust income has been used to assist orphaned children with their post high school education.

We are pleased to be able to grant scholarships to worthy individuals under the authorization of the Mary Davis McKnight Trust Fund. Grants are made for one year. If the student makes satisfactory progress and need continues, he or she may apply for the remaining years. While the general policy in this case is to try to continue to assist the student, no guarantee is made that he or she will receive the award each year. The awards are gifts. The trust expects no repayment. Grant moneys are sent directly to the educational institution where the student will be attending. In the event a recipient for any reason does not continue his or her course of study throughout the year, the institution attended will be requested to refund the unused portion of the grant. All information about the applicant received by the Scholarship Commission shall be considered confidential. Recipients of the scholarship will be notified as soon as possible.
